Worlds Beyond My Window: The Life and Work of Gertrude McCarty Smith
edited by Rich Burlingham

Artist, columnist, and poet Gertrude McCarty Smith of Collins, Mississippi, carried herself as a demure and proper southern lady, yet this was deceiving as she was a prolific, creative trailblazer who had collectors and dedicated readers from coast to coast, and even in Europe.

Book proceeds will benefit the Gertrude McCarty Smith Foundation for the Arts to bring access and passion for literature, performance, and visual arts to children in underserved communities throughout Mississippi.

Ecco, $27.99

An epic story of love, war, and redemption set against the backdrop of the Korean independence movement, following the intertwined fates of a young girl sold to a courtesan school and the penniless son of a hunter.

THE STRANGER IN THE LIFEBOAT
by Mitch Albom
Harper, $23.99

A fast-paced, compelling novel that makes you ponder your deepest beliefs, The Stranger in the Lifeboat suggests that answers to our prayers may be found where we least expect them.

CROSSROADS
by Jonathan Franzen
Farrar, Straus and Giroux, $30.00

A tour de force of interwoven perspectives and sustained suspense, its action largely unfolding on a single winter day, Crossroads is the story of a Midwestern family at a pivotal moment of moral crisis.

NEW YORK, MY VILLAGE
by Uwem Akpan
WW. Norton & Company, $27.95

Akpan’s prose melds humor, tenderness, and pain to explore the myriad ways that tribalisms define life everywhere, from the villages of Nigeria to the villages within New York City. New York, My Village is a triumph of storytelling and a testament to the life-sustaining power of community across borders and across boroughs.

THE FORTUNE MEN
by Nadifa Mohamed
Knopf, $27.00

A haunting tale of miscarried justice. This book offers a chilling look at the dark corners of our humanity.

ONCE UPON A TIME IN HOLLYWOOD
by Quentin Tarantino

GREEK MYTHS: A NEW RETELLING
by Charlotte Higgins, Chris Ofili
Pantheon, $27.00

A brilliantly original, landmark retelling of Greek myths, recounted as if they were actual scenes being woven into textiles by the women who feature prominently in them—including Athena, Helen, Circe and Penelope.

MATRIX
by Lauren Groff
Riverhead Books, $28.00

Equally alive to the sacred and the profane, Matrix gathers currents of violence, sensuality, and religious ecstasy in a mesmerizing portrait of consuming passion, aberrant faith, and a woman that history moves both through and around.
NEVER
by Ken Follett
Viking, $36.00

The new must-read epic from master writer Ken Follett: an action-packed, globe-spanning spy thriller about brinkmanship, impossible decisions, and the unforeseen consequences that could lead to the next world war.

SHOOT THE MOONLIGHT OUT
by William Boyle
Pegasus Books, $25.95

A sense of loss is palpable—what has been lost and what will be lost—and Boyle’s characters face down old ghosts with grim determination, as ripples of consequence radiate in dangerous directions.

THE DARK HOURS
by Michael Connelly
Little, Brown and Company, $29.00

A brazen, methodical killer strikes on New Year’s Eve and LAPD detective Renee Ballard and Harry Bosch must join forces to find justice for the victim in a city scarred by fear and social unrest.

HARLEM SHUFFLE
by Colson Whitehead
Doubleday, $28.95

Harlem Shuffle’s ingenious story plays out in a beautifully recreated New York City of the early 1960s. It’s a family saga masquerading as a crime novel, a hilarious morality play, a social novel about race and power, and ultimately a love letter to Harlem.
